

Study Abroad in China:

Globalization, Agriculture and Environment

Callout:

Wednesday, January 28 at 6:00 PM
ABE 301

This Maymester course will take you to:

Beijing's Forbidden City
Xi'an
The heart of rural China

Great Wall
Terracotta warriors
Hong Kong.

You will investigate the beauty of the Chinese countryside as well as its environmental problems, the diversity and difficulties of Chinese agriculture, and the opportunities and paradoxes of the global economy as seen from China. 3 credits!

Cost: To be determined (SCHOLARSHIPS AVAILABLE)
Dates: Departing approximately 14 May, 2015, for 14 days.
Credit: Four credits total: 1 cr. for the Spring orientation course and 3 cr. for the Maymester course in China.
Instructors: Steve Hallett (halletts@purdue.edu)
David Umulis (dumulis@purdue.edu)